

The New Hartford Land Trust

invites you to its 2010 Annual Meeting and a panel presentation on

Protecting Our Water Resources:

*What we all need to know!
Residents, Town Volunteers/Officials, and Land Stewards/Property Owners*

Presenters:

Eileen Fielding, Executive Director
Farmington River Watershed Association

Sean Hayden, Soil Scientist
Northwest Conservation District

Plus updates from our community rep to the Farmington River Coordinating Committee and the Town Inland-Wetlands Commission

4:00 p.m.
Sunday
February 21st

Town Hall –
Senior Center
530 Main Street
3rd Floor
New Hartford, CT 06057

From West Hill to Pine Meadow and Satan's Kingdom, from Bakerville, Nepaug and Maple Hollow to the Town Center, in New Hartford everyone lives by or near a stream, river, wetland, lake or pond and we all enjoy the recreational opportunities many of them provide. Come learn from the experts what these community water resources really mean to each one of us. Learn how our everyday decisions as homeowners, builders, land use groups and citizens affect water quality, why it matters and a variety of ways we can keep our water clean and plentiful.

Join us on a wintry Sunday afternoon to see and hear an interesting presentation, learn about what's happening with the Land Trust, have some refreshments, and see your neighbors!
